

Your Word's a Lamp
Psalm 119:105

Words and Music
Karen D. Langdon

Joni: (Verse 1)
Many times the road to take, the choice to make is not so easy
Figuring the right from wrong and being strong, though I am really weak
Where can I turn?
Well, here's what I have learned:

(Chorus)
Your Word's a lamp unto my feet
And a light unto my path
Your Word's a lamp unto my feet
And a light unto my path
You guide me

(Verse 2)
Many Bible heroes' plans and God's demands made life a challenge
Trying hard to be prepared and not be scared when facing scary things
You led them so...
Their lives help me to know...

(Repeat Chorus)

(Bridge)
I can know the way to go; You say to follow You
I can trust Your Word. It leads me, LORD; it's always true
I can know the way to go; You say to follow You
I can trust Your Word. It leads me, LORD; it's always true
Always true

(Chorus-quietly)
Your Word's a lamp unto my feet
And a light unto my path
Your Word's a lamp unto my feet
And a light unto my path

Joni & Background
Vocals, The MicEttles (Final Chorus – Double Forte)
(Harmony): Your Word's a lamp unto my feet
And a light unto my path
Your Word's a lamp unto my feet
And a light unto my path

Joni: You guide me, You guide me...
You guide me, Oh...
